Art in the Legislature

October 18, 2017 | 10 am
Anderson House Office Building

Send a day answering the question of what art is and why it matters.

- Nicholas Stone, Eastern Michigan University
- Art in the Legislature is a partnership between the Michigan Association of State Universities and the Michigan Legislature to promote art in everyday life.

October 18, 2017 | 10 a.m.
Anderson House Office Building | Mackinac Room | 5th Floor House Office Building
124 N. Capitol Avenue, Lansing, MI (Corner of Capitol and Ottawa)
“In all Seriousness, Cute” 10th Floor – South
Madeleine Perraut
University of Michigan

“Jääkiekko” 14th Floor – South
Kathryn McAllister
Grand Valley State University

“Find a Way” 8th Floor – South
Alexander Orion Pohl
Michigan Tech University

“Slash and Burn” 12th Floor – South
Sean Hamilton
Grand Valley State University

“(W)hole Woman” 8th Floor – South
Gisela McDaniel
University of Michigan

“Tower Room: Cottage 34” 10th Floor – South
Sarah Laverty
Kendall College of Art and Design

“Small Things and Grain” 6th Floor – South
Hannah Fisher
Michigan Tech University

“Untitled” 6th Floor – South
Madeline Allen
University of Michigan - Clawson

“ capacitance” 10th Floor – South
Kathryn McAllister
Grand Valley State University

“Cephalic” 14th Floor – South
Kathryn McAllister
Grand Valley State University

“Slash and Burn” 12th Floor – South
Sean Hamilton
Grand Valley State University

“Whole Woman” 8th Floor – South
Gisela McDaniel
University of Michigan

“Small Things and Grain” 6th Floor – South
Hannah Fisher
Michigan Tech University

“Untitled” 12th Floor – South
Arna Yufell
University of Michigan - Clawson

“Find a Way” 8th Floor – South
Alexander Orion Pohl
Michigan Tech University