

Welcome to the First Edition of Stewardship

Welcome to the first edition of Stewardship - The State Universities of Michigan and the Public Good, brought to you by the Michigan Association of State Universities. Published monthly, Stewardship will serve as a media showcase for the tremendous outreach the state universities display in serving their students and communities as well as the State of Michigan and beyond. Covering issues as diverse as K-12 education, economic development, health care, environmental sustainability, and public safety, these media accounts will affirm that Michigan's state universities are public universities serving the public interest.
